

eHealth Kerala
Directorate of Health Services Buildings
General Hospital Junction
Thiruvananthapuram – 695 035
Phone – 0471 2983033

eHealth Kerala is a registered Society to manage the programme for the state wide Hospital Management system in Kerala under the Department of Health and Family Welfare. eHealth is looking for dynamic professionals with experience in IT and exposure to Hospital and Healthcare domains to be part of their challenging programme for implementation and support.

The candidate must have good analytical, Communication, Team-working and stake holder management skills. Should be willing to work anywhere in Kerala for project implementation and technical support. The Job is not transferable

Technical Engineers:

Primary responsibilities and proposed Qualification and Experience for the post of Technical Engineers are mentioned as follows:

Primary Responsibilities:

- Provide design and specification development support to system integrators
- Plan, execute and implement project, configure related changes, Quality assurance and reporting
- Coordinate with teams and resolve application and system related issues and prepare documents
- Provide support and identify all issues and prepare appropriate documentation of all issues and solutions
- Manage production system and recommend ways to optimize the performance, resolve issues and prepare reports
- Perform root cause analysis and reporting

Qualification:

First Class B. Tech/B.E in IT/CSE/ECE

Experience:

- One year I T experience with Design, Development, Testing and Implementation
- Understanding of Network Communication Technology
- Proficient in Microsoft Office
- Experience in Hospital Management System implementation and support is desirable
- Experience with open source-PostgreSQL, Java technologies is desirable
(Please attach copy of experience certificate with application)

Number of Vacancy : 20 Nos. (Approx.)
Consolidated Monthly Remuneration : Rs.20,000/-
Tenure of Contract : One year (renewable to 2 years as per requirement)
Selection Process : Written Test (MCQ) - Technical and Aptitude – through online followed by Interview for the short listed candidates. Test Centre at Trivandrum