

Even though the state of Kerala has advanced as compared to the other states of India in terms of criti

At NRHM we aim at,

- Provision of comprehensive health care services to the community – with special thrust to rural areas
- Reduction in Infant Mortality Rate
- Reduction in Maternal Mortality Ratio
- Reduction of TFR – For population stabilization
- Provision of client centered, accessible, quality Health Services to the needy population
- Surveillance, Prevention and Control of communicable and NCDs

Essence of NRHM implementation in Kerala

-

Establishing referral system of protocol – Strengthening the 3rd tier and activating the 2nd tier

-

Promoting preventive and promotive aspects of Primary Health care in the community

-

Strengthening Training program and Capacity Building

-

Establishing Health Management Information System

-

Strengthening Nursing Education Department

-

Improving & sustaining Health Indicators

-

Putting up a system of referral transport

-

Launching special programs for NCDs linked with ASHA

-

Piloting remedial measures for 2nd Generation problems like

-

Pain & Palliation.

-

Malignancies.

-

Geriatric

-

Suicides.

-

Mental Health Problems

-

Tackling Re-emergence of Infectious Diseases

-

Combined Behaviour Change Communication strategy

-

Optimizing use of all systems of medicine

-

Convergence of activities of Health Determinants

Five components of NRHM

-

Part A RCH Phase II

-

Part B Additionalities

-

Part C Immunization

-

Part D National Disease Control Programs

-

Part E Convergence Action